Careers Guidance & Education Policy

1. Scope and Purpose

Barking and Dagenham College is committed to providing high quality Careers Education, Information, Advice and Guidance (CEIAG) for all learners giving them clear, attainable progression routes to employment, apprenticeships, training and higher levels of education appropriate to their needs to fulfil their potential.

This policy sets out the principles of independent and impartial careers guidance provision at the College. Careers support is accessible to all current and prospective learners

Barking and Dagenham College believes that by providing high quality and impartial careers information, advice and guidance learners will be confident about their future career paths and goals. This will result in:

- A clear understanding of the full range of opportunities available, the skills that are valued in the workplace and access to first-hand experience of skills needed in the workplace.
- Access to a comprehensive programme of high quality, information, advice and guidance delivered by skilled individuals and organisations with the right expertise and experience.
- Tailored careers support meets individual needs and circumstances.
- Alignment with the College's key strategic priorities, including developing skilled individuals that are employment ready and meet employer needs and the economic priorities of Barking and Dagenham, London and beyond.

This policy is written in line with the Department for Education's guidance:

- Careers guidance and access for education and training providers (January 2023)
- Careers Strategy – Making the most of everyone's skills and talents (December 2017)

2. CEIAG Provision

All learners need a planned programme of activities to help them explore suitable career pathways, make informed life choices, and maintain long-term employability. CEIAG is designed to support current learners and prospective students

CEIAG provided will be tailored and personalised to ensure progression, through activities that are appropriate to the learners' stage of learning, career planning and development. Learners are entitled to CEIAG that meets professional standards of practice and is person-centred, impartial and confidential.

3. Principles of CEIAG

This policy is based on the following key principles:

- Personalised – Tailored to meet individual needs, providing opportunities for learners to reflect on their experiences and build on previous learning.

- Inclusive – Promotes equality and diversity, challenges stereotypes, and respects faith, culture, and background.
- Transparent and Impartial – Ensures clarity, fairness, and access to confidential support.
- Supportive – Helps learners at risk of dropping out by offering guidance to improve retention, achievement, and referrals to alternative provisions when necessary.
- Collaborative – Strengthened by strong networks and partnerships between learner services, curriculum teams, employers, and external organisations.
- Aspirational – Encourages informed decision-making by raising aspirations and supporting participation, retention, and achievement.
- High-Quality – Delivers comprehensive, impartial, and professional careers information, advice, and guidance.

4. Values and Benefits to Learners

Benefits of a career's education programme are:

- Guiding potential learners to help them explore and choose the course which best meets their individual needs, interests and aspirations.
- Access to impartial, quality careers information, advice and guidance.
- Helping learners to progress into positive destinations after completing their studies by raising awareness of opportunities, using labour market intelligence, and developing employability and essential skills.

A potential learner may benefit from careers guidance, for example, if they:

- Are uncertain of course choice.
- Do not meet the entry requirements for their chosen course.
- Lack a clear rationale for their course choice.
- Have previously attempted but not completed the course.
- Have not developed a clear and realistic careers plan
- Have low confidence and aspirations.

On course learners may benefit from careers guidance, for example, if they:

- Need support with planning their career path
- Are considering leaving the College before their course ends
- Are coming towards the end of their course and not yet decided on the next steps
- Need help and support with applying to university or to another institutions
- Would like support with job search activities or improving their essential skills.
