Induction Policy

1 Scope

- 1.1 This policy applies to all new learners enrolled with the College.

2 Policy statement

The College is committed to helping learners settle into College life and their programme of study, to become effective learners focussed on achievement, that are aware of their responsibilities and own their progress and learning.

3 General Purpose

In pursuit of the policy, the College will Aim to:

- 3.1 Provide all learners with an effective induction at the start of the course. Because of its scope this will be a programme rather than a single session for full time, substantive long courses and apprenticeships.
- 3.2 Ensure the content and length of induction is appropriate for the programme and to provide an opportunity to build relationships with staff and other students
- 3.3 Provide all learners enrolling on courses with sufficient information during the induction to enable them to complete their induction.
- 3.4 Undertake some form of initial and diagnostic assessment with all learners (core skills, and vocational / technical aptitude) prior to or during induction and identify and follow up additional support requirements.
- 3.5 Complete an Individual Learning or Training Plan with appropriate targets at the end of induction, based on prior attainment and initial assessment.
- 3.6 Allocate all learners with a student learning mentor, personal tutor or apprenticeship officer during the first week of their programme.
- 3.7 Gain learner voice feedback through forums and surveys
- 3.8 Ensure each induction programme is fair and respectful, taking account of the needs of individuals within the group

4 Formal procedures which apply to inductions

4.1 Purpose

The purpose of these procedures is to ensure that all new learners have an induction which is planned and carried out in a consistent manner and to prepare students for their programme of study and ensure a smooth transition into college life. Supporting appendices can be found at the end of this document.

4.2 Scope

- 4.2.1 This procedure applies to all staff who contribute to the induction of new learners.

4.2

Procedures

- 4.3.1 All new learners will receive an induction led by the Heads of Departments or an appointed representative.
- 4.3.2 Induction will comprise of a 4-week programme aligned to assessment criteria, professional aspirations and the setting of high expectations. It will also ensure the statutory elements are delivered and tracked.
- 4.3.3 The induction programme will provide information regarding the programme, college and personal learning and development supplemented by such specific information judged appropriate. A planned programme of activities will be integrated into the main programme where possible, complemented blended learning and the following activities and events:

- Meet staff, support staff, tutors, Executive Directors, Heads of Department and Curriculum Managers
- Headline Safeguarding and Prevent
- Introduction to courses including English and Maths
- Campus orientation and Health & Safety
- Team building activities and study skills
- Setting expectations as in the student pledge
- Introduction to vocational, technical, delivery models and assessment ▪ Review timetables

Learners on non-substantive, part time courses and short courses will complete an induction programme, college and personal learning and development within the first week of the course. A planned induction programme will include activities integrated into the main programme where possible, complemented by blended learning and the following documentation: Meet staff, Executive Directors, Heads of Department and Curriculum Managers

- Meet staff
 - Headline Safeguarding and Prevent information
 - Introduction to courses including English and Maths
 - Campus orientation and Health & Safety
 - Introduction to vocational subject
 - Timetable checks
- 4.3.4 All learners will be offered initial assessment and, in some cases, followed up with diagnostic assessment.
- 4.3.5 The induction programme and any additional support material will be agreed in advance by the Chief Operating Officer.
- 4.3.6 Briefing sessions on induction for will be provided annually for all tutors and student support staff.
- 4.3.7 A timetable will be drawn up for induction and communicated to learners by delivery teams either prior to or during the first session.
- 4.3.8 On completion of the induction programme, delivery teams will complete an Induction Checklist with each Learner which will be maintained within the eTracker.

- 4.3.9 For students who enrol at college after the original start date, an online tutorial package will be provided alongside support from a designated learning mentor

Monitoring and Evaluation of Induction

Copies of induction programmes and timetables will be maintained within the Curriculum Quality folder on Microsoft Sharepoint. Induction Checklists will be completed by each learner and maintained within the eTracker system.

The College Leadership Forum and the Quality Unit are responsible for evaluating inductions along with learner voice. Course Tutors with the Course Team will respond to feedback from surveys and forums, addressing issues arising from induction prior to the end of the Autumn term and to inform future induction planning.

Top Tips for induction planning

- Look at induction from the learners' point of view. Make Day 1 fun and active. Don't ask learners to fill forms in on day 1. This can be done throughout the first few weeks.
- Integrate the induction programme into the course, particularly for learners on full time and substantive part time courses.
- Use the same rooms to give learners a sense of continuity.
- Plan a sensible balance of activities to ensure that learners feel welcome and also get the information they need.
- Think creatively about ways of getting information over e.g. let learners devise their own code of behaviour as a way of introducing the learner-college agreement.
- Ensure 1:1 reviews are scheduled and learners are informed of the dates / times.
- Use material covered in induction during the first term to make it more meaningful.
- Design activities to create a group identity and develop a work ethic.
- Use 2nd learners to act as buddies / organise activities.

Appendix 6

Guidelines for the Early Absence, Withdrawal and Change of Course during Induction

The first few weeks in college have been shown to be crucial for learner's retention. As in previous years we need to monitor the attendance of new learners very carefully.

An important feature of this will be establishing early communication with learners and parents/carers. Course teams are asked to help implement this enhanced system by following the procedures outlined below.

All tutors involved in the induction programme will be required to complete the register of learners expected at their session. Any additional learners present within their lesson must be added to the register.

Course tutors are required to telephone any learner who does not arrive for induction or is absent at any time during induction. Course tutors should note the outcome of these calls using the eTracker.

The Curriculum Manager should be notified of missing learners using eTracker to ensure every missing learner is followed up. Curriculum Managers will be required to update the Assistant Principals daily regarding enrolments during this period.

Change of Course

Learners wishing to change any element of their study programme or T Level must discuss this first with the Course Team Leader or a course Tutor. A guidance meeting may need to be booked with the Student Services team or alternatively a referral to the careers and admissions to discuss any changes with the student and record this discussion and the outcome on eTracker.

The Course Team Leader is responsible for ensuring the online transfer form is completed if the change is acceptable to both parties and for ensuring that the appropriate Course Team Leader receives all documentation completed to date. The online transfer form should be returned to CIS and a copy retained by the Course Team Leader

Early Withdrawals

Where learners wish to withdraw from college every effort should be made to ensure they are referred to the appropriate support prior to withdrawal and if unsuccessful, an early exit guidance interview which should be booked with Student Services.

Student Services will complete the exit guidance interview with the learner and the outcomes of this recorded on eTracker. The Course Team Leader is responsible for actioning the withdrawal and checking any additional information is documented on the appropriate systems (if applicable). All documentation relating to learners who have withdrawn should be returned to Student Services.

Don't Knows / Late Enrolments

During the summer enrolment and induction period, the following learners should be referred to Student Services for further guidance:

- learners who are undecided (don't knows)
- learners who have not met the entry criteria and are not able to be placed on a lower level course

Late enrolments should complete an induction programme. To ensure all new students are aware of the College and its provision, learners may be allocated a student buddie/mentor to provide support and information. They should also be given an enrolment checklist with the dates and times of college induction sessions for latecomers e.g. LRC induction, Student Service induction, etc. Student mentors will be responsible for supporting and monitoring the learner to ensure they complete the college and course induction programme.

Contacting Parents and Carers

Course teams should establish early and close links with parents/carers by making contact at the start of term e.g. holding induction evenings for parents, etc. To ensure that minimum standards are maintained for 16-18 learners, course teams should ensure that parents/carers are fully informed of the young person's programme and are provided with contact names. To achieve this, course tutors are required to contact parent/carers outlining the contact names of the appropriate Student Mentor and other relevant staff.

Each course is required to provide an opportunity for parents/carers to meet the course team in the first half term. This can occur at the new starter welcome evening or outside of this event.
