Overview

This level 2 qualification aims to give you an understanding of the journey to becoming a counsellor, including the skills and knowledge you are likely to acquire on the way.

It also offers insights into the counselling landscape and emphasises the benefits of in-person and online remote learning, providing clarity as individuals start their path toward becoming a counsellor.

What you'll learn

You'll gain knowledge and skills to work within the counselling ethical framework - a guide for best practice.

Learning is in accordance with the Counselling & Psychotherapy Central Award Body.

Assessments / Exams

There is an exam at the end of this course.

A typical week

This is a part time course. You will be required to complete a weekly journal for your tutors to assess.

Entry requirements

You'll have an interview with a counselling lecturer.

There might also be a need for a pre-screening assessment.

Our teaching staff

Our staff all have recent industry experience, and many of them continue to work in care alongside their teaching.
