Overview

This course will enable those who are speakers of other languages to learn about the area of Community Interpreting.

You may wish to study the subject if you have an interest in the topic, or to use the qualification as a steppingstone to become a Community Interpreter.

The qualification offers the opportunity to learn about the language skills required when working in the community – giving an awareness of how language changes depending on the situation. There is also an opportunity to look at how Public and Voluntary Service sectors work and their interaction with the community. The role of the interpreter is also explored and discussed.

What you'll learn

On this course, you will learn:

- English Language Awareness
- Communities and Organisations
- Role of the Community Interpreter

Assessments / Exams

You will be assessed through a portfolio of evidence.

Entry requirements

You will need to be fluent in English (at least Level 1) and another language.

What this course leads to

On completion of this course, you will be able to progress onto the Level 3 Certificate in Community Interpreting.
