Overview

If you want to learn about equality and diversity in different contexts, this course will give you a great understanding of the different issues affecting equality and diversity in society today.

Companies are legally required to follow a set of practices to tackle discrimination and ensure equality for their employees. You will gain an insight into the wide-ranging legislation that's needed to create a workplace centred on fairness, dignity and respect.

This course is delivered entirely online and can be studied at a pace that suits you. You could complete in as little as 3 weeks dependent on the time you can commit.

What you'll learn

On this course you will:

- Learn the importance of equality and diversity within different contexts
- Gain an understanding of the different issues affecting equality and diversity in today's society
