Overview

Our Level 4 Certificate in Education and Training is perfect for those who aspire to or currently work as teachers or trainers in the adult and community learning sector, further education, or work-based training environments.

This course is a gateway to a rewarding career in teaching, providing you with the essential skills and knowledge to excel in various educational settings.

What you'll learn

The City and Guilds Level 4 Certificate in Education and Training is a foundational teaching qualification that includes a practical teaching component. Whether you are an in-service teacher/trainer or a pre-service candidate, you will gain comprehensive knowledge and skills that are vital for effective teaching and training.

Skills you will develop:

- Understanding the roles and responsibilities of a teacher/trainer concerning legislation, equality, diversity, inclusivity, and meeting the needs of learners.
- Conducting initial and diagnostic assessments and planning and delivering inclusive teaching and learning sessions.
- Planning engaging and motivating sessions for learners.
- Applying suitable teaching and training approaches.
- Making formative and summative assessments of learning.
- Utilising appropriate resources to support effective learning.

- Employing digital applications to enhance training and teaching.
- Evaluating training and teaching sessions to identify areas for improvement.

Core modules include:

- The roles, responsibilities, and relationships in education and training
- Planning inclusive teaching and learning approaches
- Assessment of learners
- Use of resources
- Understanding and managing behaviour
- Preparing for the personal tutor role
- Understanding principles and practices of assessment
- Embedding employability skills

Assessments / Exams

Assessment is conducted through a combination of practical teaching evaluations, written assignments, and portfolio submissions. You will be required to demonstrate your teaching skills in a real classroom environment, ensuring that you can apply the theoretical knowledge gained during the course.

Links with employers

This qualification requires access to 30 hours of teaching practice, allowing you to gain hands-on experience in a real educational setting. This practical component is crucial for developing your teaching skills and applying the concepts learned during the course.

What this course leads to

Upon completing the Level 4 Certificate in Education and Training, you will be well-equipped to pursue employment as a teacher or trainer in the post-16 education sector.
