What you'll learn

Throughout this course you'll benefit from a combination of both classroom learning as well as on-the-job training, to develop a strong foundation in both theory and practice.

The qualification ensures that learners are equipped with up-to-date occupational knowledge and skills that are in demand among employers, helping students stay current with industry trends and developments.

This course covers units including:

- Child development
- Safeguarding
- Equality and diversity
- Health and Safety
- Communication skills
- Understanding and managing behaviour
- How to support children and young people's education
- Observing and assessing children and young people

Assessments / Exams

You will be assessed though coursework, observations, assignments and exams.

Entry requirements

You will need to have GCSE Maths, English Language and two additional subjects at grade 4 (C) or above.

As part of the application process you will also be asked to explain why you want to study this course, so that we can ensure any course offer made aligns to your career goals.

Links with employers

Working in the industry allows you to put your knowledge into practice. It'll also help with progressing to further study or when looking for jobs.

What this course leads to Successful completion of the course will give you a licence to practice, enabling you to enter the workforce as a qualified Early Years Educator.

Alternatively, you can also use this T Level qualification to do a related higher-level apprenticeship or degree course.
